The first or the second book. But probably the second because it was focused on Tsunami, one of my favorites.

I guess the first book made me want to read more just to see the ending, but I started really liking it at the third-ish.

*Hm, let's see... beware, I'm one of those forumers whose responses are WAY too detailed...
I knew that I'd love WoF as soon as I started The Dragonet Prophecy, but I never considered myself a full WoF fan until I read Legends: Darkstalker.
I guess that you could say that it is that one book in the series that is really great, but it's always overlooked. I read it right after I finished book 6 (Moon Rising) and I was like; who is this Darkstalker? When I realized there was a book about him, I exploded. (Perhaps literally.)
Well, anyway...
the reason I liked it so much was not because I love character backstories, but for something else entirely. The characters in LD (Darkstalker, Clearsight, Fathom, etc...) all seemed to be so... real. None of them were flat-out nice, or, on the other hand, completely evil, they all had so many different motives and sides. I especially liked Darkstalker's story (I guess that you could call meh a Darkstalker fannnn..... XD) ... his character development was like none that I had ever seen in a book ike LD before, no kidding.
So, yep, I'm a FanWing now, thanks to LD. I even write most of my posts in red and black now. Sorry for wasting your time (lol)

Book one made me a FanWing. After I started reading Wings of Fire, there was no stopping me. I loved it so much. And I still do. I still dream about it and daydream about it. Once I met the 5 dragonets. I loved them. Then I read book 6, met the new dragonets, and loved them just as much!

Definitely Moon Rising. I think that's number six, maybe?
I loved all the books about the Dragonets, but it wasn't until I started reading Winglets that I got hooked.
Anyone else out there with number six as a fav?
(and I may or may not ship moonbli) :)

I really love the book Darkstalker. It really explains a lot about him, and it may sometimes actually help me understand this series a little better! And I LOVE Glory! Very responsible, smart and AWESOME!!!! Hehe, I don't know why I wrote that about Glory, even though it has nothing to do with the book, so... Yay!!!!

Book 1! It was on the back of my dad's cereal box, and he ordered it for me, it was free! It also came with book 2, which I LOVED! Not to mention Glory, who is AWESOME! Not long after I was reading book 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, and waiting for the 8th!

But before any of that, when I saw Clay's grinning face on a cereal box (lol), I thought, wow, what a cool title! Wings Of Fire! SO cool sounding! And there's a DRAGON on the front. WOW!

You see, I'm a Very picky reader, the only books I liked reading were ones filled with adventure. Maybe some romance, but not too much. Right now I am reading Warriors, Wings Of Fire (u probably guessed), Noragami, and Library Wars love and war.

Today I have read every wings of fire thing that Tui has put out, except for a very annoying winglets that I can only get online

Keep reading guys!
